FRANCESCA MONTE

Releases new single 'VERTIGO'

Vertigo is the new single by the singer, songwriter Francesca Monte.

The electronic sounds match the raw and direct lyrics written by the songwriter from Italy, who talks about panic attacks and anxiety in the song.

Music creates a whirl and drags people to an unstable dimension, but consciousness can make you solve a problem without underestimating it. The song is written by Francesca Monte with the collaboration of the Scottish producer MVMOTH, together with Kevan and Daniel Baiolla from Rotbaum Records.

Francesca Monte is an Italian singer, topline songwriter and composer. She started playing the piano and songwriting when she was 14. She performed worldwide in places like the US, the UAE and all over Europe.

Francesca collaborated with the international star Buddy Miles in Dallas when she was 17. During 2014, she participated in "The Voice of Italy", and the "X Factor 8 Italy" as part of "Komminuet" where she made it to the finale.

She keeps growing and growing so keep an eye on her music.
